Tim Jackson MW January 9, 2019 Exclusive Fine Wine Highlights Home Trip to California organized for MWs in late 2018 gave Tim Jackson MW a rare opportunity to taste the composite parts of this super-price wine. Did the finished article live up to expectations? Screaming Eagle: California's uber-cult Cabernet, massive, super-mature and oak, 200% new oak, $1500 napa fruit bomb, right? Incorrectly. Screaming Eagle wines sweep away such prejudices with their pure fruit, hard but elegant tannins, beautifully crafted oak and incredible length. These are the wines of excellent sophistication that justify the hype. Vinaid:26721,displayCase:standard,paywall:26720,duration:standard,paywall:True Screaming Eagle at First Sight: The Manor was founded by Gene Phillips in 1986. Existing vines were quickly replanted - Screaming Eagle Cabernet Sauvignon was launched in 1995, Since 1992, the first vintage, made by legendary winemaker Heidi Barrett and the second flight was launched in 2012, since 2006 the first vintage, and produced as 55-75% Merlot wine, subsequently renamed flight 25-30% of wines made in any vintage make it in any wine, and the rest sold 500-850 cases of each wine produced per year. Almost all sold to members of the mailing list, with the maximum 3-bottle distribution - Cabernet Sauvignon 2016 was released for mailing list members at $1,050 per bottle and flying at $550 $550
